FILINGS

A separate case filing occurs for each criminal and juvenile offender defendant. Criminal and juvenile offender filings are categorized by the primary (i.e., most serious) original charge against the defendant. For a non-criminal case, a separate filing is reported for each complaint or petition filed.

Each unique mental illness/alcohol case number is reported as a single filing, no matter how many subsequent petitions are filed during the life of a case. A case reopened for subsequent adjudication after the initial judgment is not considered a new filing unless a new case number is assigned.

CASES WITH PRO SE LITIGANTS

Pro se litigants (i.e., those that represent themselves without an attorney) place an additional workload on judicial and clerical resources because of their limited familiarity with legal issues and the court environment. This statistical reporting category is reported to provide a better assessment of the impact of these cases on the estimation of needed staffing resources.

A pro se litigant case is categorized into the original filing category under which it is initially classified, and is counted during the month in which the case is filed.

EX PARTE ACTIONS

An ex parte action is a judicial action on the behalf of one party, without notice to or contestation by any person adversely interested. Such an action may take place on or off the bench, but does not necessarily result in a signed order.

Given the frequency of ex parte actions occurring off the bench, and the necessary completion of a transaction slip by the judicial officer, reporting of this workload measure is a local option.

Given the frequency of ex parte actions occurring off the bench, and the necessary completion of a transaction slip by the judicial officer, reporting of this workload measure is a local option.

Trials and adjudicatory hearings are contested proceedings conducted by a judge to determine the guilt or innocence of the defendant in criminal and juvenile offender cases, or to resolve the issues of a case in non-criminal cases.

Proceedings include hearings and trials conducted in open court with at least one of the parties present in a case or non-charge matter. For any case a single session of the court can result in one or more proceedings, except during trials. Any given type of proceeding that occurs during a single court session can only be counted once (e.g., despite numerous motions made to the court, only one motion hearing is counted).

For mental illness and alcohol cases, resolution occurs at the adjudication of the first commitment petition filed in a case other than the initial petition for detention.

Each case results in only one resolution, reflecting the extent to which court resources were involved. For criminal and juvenile offender cases the resolution is listed in the reporting category corresponding to the most serious charge obtaining a conviction or, where no conviction was obtained, to the charge which involved the greatest amount of court resources to obtain a resolution. Non-criminal case resolutions are based on the extent of court resources needed to obtain a resolution.

² A non-charge case is one opened for which no formal charges have been filed, such as for conducting one or more preliminary appearances prior to the filing of an information. If an information is subsequently filed, the case is counted as a criminal case as of the date the information is filed.
